

LOkesh Ghai:

A textile artist, research and academician. His work has featured at the V&A Museum of Childhood, London; Harley Gallery, Nottinghamshire; Gallery of Costume, Manchester; Blackburn Museum and Ahmedabad international Art Festival. He has taught and contributed towards the growth of students at Kala Raksha Vidhalaya, India's premier design institute for traditional craft communities. He has lectured at Royal College of Art, London; University of Lancashire, Preston; National Institute of Fashion Technology, Gandhinager and National Institute of Design, Ahmedabad, India. He has assisted/ collaborated with designers, artists and researchers from Japan, UK and India. LOkesh is interested in heritage, hand-crafts, and working with communities.